SUNDAY, JANUARY 22, 2017: THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

Father Elias invited me to share with you my experiences and insights in how to use silent prayer to better listen to the voice of God within ourselves.

Most commonly, when we think of prayer what comes immediately to our minds are the prayers that we either say in the various liturgies or in the prayers where we petition God to help us in some manner.

But there is also another type of prayer. This is prayer where we open our hearts and minds and begin to listen to what God is trying to tell us. By listening to this voice, we can come to understand and actually live out what God wants us to do with our lives.

Rather than using words, we rely on silence to enter a newer deeper relationship and ultimate Communion with God. Our prayer is surrounded by silence rather than with all the noise we constantly hear throughout our busy ~~days~~

One way to get started with this type of contemplative prayer is to use the techniques associated with Lectio Divina.

Lectio Divina is a slow, deliberate, and contemplative reading and praying of the Scriptures. We can be most effective with this type of prayer if we set aside a specific time and place in our busy lives to pray. By doing this we can begin to discover a new spiritual rhythm to our day.

Most of us encounter feelings of frustration throughout our daily lives. We all have days filled with the natural problems associated with our families and work that can result in anxiety, depression, or feelings of emptiness. By setting aside time in a special quiet manner through Lectio Divina we can discover in our daily lives a new special underlying rhythm.

This rhythm can help us to establish a new relationship with God our Father and enable us to enter a newer fresher relationship with His Son, Jesus Christ. We begin to open ourselves to receive the many graces given so freely by God. By being surrounded in silence we can tune out the distractions around us and focus on God in a new profound manner.

By internalizing what we read in the Scriptures we gradually become much more attuned to what the Scriptures are calling each of us to do with our lives. We begin to focus less on our own individuality and begin to think and act in Communion with God and our neighbors.

In silence we are able to bring our concerns, our relationships, our hopes, and our aspirations and intertwine them with the beautiful message of the Scriptures in our meditations. We can begin to unify our body and our soul to become receptive to hearing and then living out the voice of God.

In future Bulletins I will explain in more details the actual techniques of Lectio Divina that I use. Today, I just wanted to share with you my overview of praying in silence.

Peace, Deacon John

Confessions

Saturday: 3:pm - 3:45pm

Let us pray for the intentions of our Holy Father during the month of January.....

Evangelization Intention: Christian Unity. That all Christians may be faithful to the Lord's teaching by striving with prayer and fraternal charity to restore ecclesial communion and by collaborating to meet the challenges facing Humanity.

Bulletin Reflection

The watchword today is "immediately." Peter and Andrew, James and John all respond immediately to the call of Christ. May I be as open to God's call and as ready to use my talent in His service as those first disciples were!

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards who work in parish-based advocacy groups to bring Gospel value and Catholic social teaching to the wider community.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 22, 2017: THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
January 22, 2017
Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel, we find that Jesus "...proclaimed the good news of the kingdom, and cured the people of every disease and illness."

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will proclaim the good news of Jesus to those who are suffering.

In the first two weeks of the new year, the Glen Cove Conference has helped three more families keep the heat and lights on by paying all or a portion their utility bills. St. Vincent de Paul always helps families with food vouchers and referrals to the Pantries at the Churches of St. Patrick and St. Rocco.

As we begin 2017, we are asking for Associate Members, members who can help with a project or two and are not asked to attend monthly meetings or make home visits.

To learn more, please call us at 800-676-5586, email gcsvdp@gmail.com or come to our next monthly meeting on Tuesday, February 7, 2017.

Whether you decide to volunteer your time or make a monetary contribution, with your help, we can continue to bring comfort and peace to those who are in need.

We meet at St. Rocco's Parish Center (18 Third Street, Glen Cove) starting at 7:30 PM.

Please continue to keep in your prayers the sick members, family and friends of our parish:
